NEW GOLF STORIES

The White Rock golf cup is now being displayed in the show window of Woods & Sheldon, where it is admired by many. This cup is certainly a beautiful trophy and will be the bone of contention amongst golfers for some time to come. The player who is successful in carrying off this prize will have something of which he may justly feel proud. The cup is of sterling silver and stands at least two feet high.
It is appropriately engraved and figured.

In turning the trophy over to the clubs the White Rock people make the following conditions, any of which may be changed if the committee so desires:

1. The cup to be known and designed "White Rock Trophy." 2. Stroke competition to be held once each month, alternately, on the links of the Maunaloa, Moanalua and Haiewa golf clubs.
3. Competition open to members in good standing of any golf club in the Territory of Hawaii, organized at this date.

4. Trophy to become the property of the competitor winning it once on each of the above mentioned links.
5. Entrance fees not to exceed 50c for each competition; receipts for entrance fees to be the property of the club under which such competition is held.

6. Subject to the above conditions the White Rock Mineral Springs Co., further offers one case of White Rock to the competitor making the second best score in each competition for the "White Rock Trophy."
7. It is suggested that a committee of not less than two members of each of the above named clubs (one of which in each instance, shall be a scratch player, and the other a handicap player) be appointed to have charge of the trophy and make such rules governing the competitions as they may deem necessary and proper; also to determine dates of competitions, adjust handicaps from time to time, and superintend all drawings for order of play.

Woods & Sheldon have in addition offered a dozen hand-made "Pal" golf balls to the player who first wins this prize with a "Pal."

GOOD CARD ARRANGED

Three good scraps have been arranged and will be held at the Hawaiian Opera House on Saturday evening, February 3.

These events will decide three championships and will be worth witnessing.
In all there will be thirty-one rounds of good hard fighting among lads who are looking for reputations rather than the coin.

Two heavies, in the person of Hackman Dave and Bill Lang of the Iroquois, will clash for honors. These two giants are hard and aggressive hitters.
This should be a fight that is not seen every day in the week.

Wahilani and Sailor Morch will do battle for the welterweight championship. Morch is a fighter who never goes backward, and the native lad will be kept busy when he faces the stocky sailor. Morch is out to win and in the event that he wins he wants to fight with Huihul.

Dick Sullivan of San Francisco and Bill Huihul will appear in the main event. Both of these bruisers have reputations as milt artists and their match is attracting wide attention.
This promises to be a classy match.

The Hawaiian Opera House has been engaged in which to hold this show.
This alone will insure a large crowd.

CHINESE FIELD DAY

Local Chinese athletes will run, jump and throw weights for records today. They will hold their athletic meet on the Boys' Field on Liliha street.

This is the first Chinese event of the kind promoted here and it should prove a novel sight. En Sue and Akana will be the two stars in this meet and all eyes will be turned on them. John Woo, Eddie Ayan and Mon Yin are other fast men that will compete.

The officials will be: Referee, Mr. Reiner; clerk of the course, E. S. Kong; scorer, Yap See Young; timekeepers, Ed. Fernandez, Sam Chillingworth, Mr. Hunter, Judges—track, Wong Chas. Ahfook, Wm. Kwai Fong; field, En Ol Farm, R.
Leach; starter, E. B. Turner; announcer, E. S. Kong.

Madame Chung, Jo Fan will present the prizes, assisted by Miss Lucy Kong, Miss Lily Kong, Miss Constance Re-tarick.

FOR ROBBIE BURNS

SPLENDID PROGRAM READY FOR THURSDAY CELEBRATION

SONGS AND STORY, ORATORY AND JOY—WILL BE A GRAND TIME FOR SCOTS AND THEIR FRIENDS.

The memory of Robbie Burns, the Scottish poet, will be eulogized on the 25th with a fervor that age cannot withstand nor custom stale when exile Scots and their guests meet at the Waverley Hall to do honor to the Awaahie genius. The great Scottish event is under the auspices of the Honolulu Scottish Thistle Club and past successes augur well for the coming smoker.

From a scrutiny of an advance copy of the program the Committee is to be congratulated on securing such an array of talented artists and there is no doubt that the literary and musical exercises will be handled in fine style, the names of the artists bespeaking harmony and eloquence.

After the Chairman's introductory remarks the first item on the program, "There was a Lad was Born in Kyle," will be contributed by D. W. Anderson.
This is one of the poet's best rollicking songs in which he portrays in a humorous manner the circumstances of his birth and the prophesy concerning his subsequent fame, and in the capable hands of Mr. Anderson will be much appreciated. Hugo Herzer will be heard to advantage in "MacGregor's Gathering," the song on account of its alternative passion and pathos being well suited to his rich baritone voice.

In the "Star o' Robbie Burns" Chris Jenkins has chosen a song especially appropriate to the occasion and will undoubtedly be enthusiastically received. I. Dillingham and Jas. L. Cockburn are to essay "Sams Toi" and "The Old Brigade," respectively, and their well known vocal capabilities cannot fail to elicit for them unstinted applause. Bruce Hartman will appear in one of his inimitable elocutionary bits and is sure of being an acceptable artist to the audience. R. Anderson in "Tam O'Shanter," should be very effective, his rendition of the piece in past years evoking wild enthusiasm.

Edward G. Munro's name will con-jure up "Jeanie Shaw" and "Mary of Argyle," but evidently he is leaving his old loves for more patriotic airs in singing "Burns and Scotland Yet" or "Flow Gently Sweet Afton." These pieces are Scottish gems and in the rich native and soul-stirring notes of this popular artist should be feelingly delivered and rousing encouragement. J. F.
Fenwick appears in "Scotland," and should score a triumph as in former days with his martial and chorus catching successes.

The above songs intersperse throughout the toast list and the proceedings will terminate with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

It's an easy job for the barber to part the hair on a head like this.
It's just as easy to prevent baldness if you only do the right thing.
Baldness is almost always a sure sign of neglect; it is the story of neglected dandruff.
Dandruff is untidy, unnecessary, and unhealthy.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

cures dandruff and prevents baldness.
You save your hair and you are spared the annoyance of untidy clothing.
It also stops falling of the hair, and makes the hair grow thick and long.
Do not be deceived by cheap imitations which will only disappoint you.
Be sure you get AYER'S Hair Vigor.

THE GREAT HOME REMEDY FOR WOMEN WINE OF CARDUI

That 1,500,000 suffering women have cured themselves of irregular and painful periods, bearing down pains, ovarian troubles, nervousness, headache and backache and all manner of female weaknesses by giving themselves private treatment with this great woman's remedy, proves that Wine of Cardui is not only a highly scientific medicine, but a mild tonic that any woman or child may take without possible harm.

Mild, medicinal herbs, not strong and drastic drugs constitute the healing qualities that have made Wine of Cardui famous. It is not a dangerous poison that has to be safely administered under a doctor's supervision. No need for a doctor's services at all—no local examinations—no operations.

Wine of Cardui can be taken at a moment's notice. It is an invigorating tonic that is beneficial for any woman at any time.

Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist. Begin the treatment today. Health is only a matter of the right medicine. Wine of Cardui is the right medicine.
